

Offering Real World Internet Marketing Knowledge and Experience

The Revenue Performance internship program is designed for college students who are looking to enter the online marketing and advertising field.

This is a unique hands-on opportunity for students to set foot in the highly competitive and specialized industry of search engine marketing. The internship program is open to several majors including, but not limited to: Communications, Ad/PR, and Marketing

We do not hire interns for general filing, running errands, photocopying, etc. but rather we want to challenge your mind.

Your role as an intern at Revenue Performance Inc. will include:

- Writing Press Releases
- Marketing to Travel Agents
- Completing Monthly Reports
- Completing Keyword Research
- Performing Competitor Research
- Social Media Optimization
- Website Copywriting and Optimization
- Performing Consumer Generated Media Audits
- Researching e-Commerce Opportunities for Hotels
- Writing Travel Articles
- And more!

In-Depth Training Techniques

Revenue Performance will provide you with all the necessary training and provide you the best possible tools available. We will coach you, develop “hands-on experience,” and teach you through example...all which will give you that additional edge when you graduate.

Requirements

Applicants must have common knowledge of MS Excel and Word, as well as possess the ability to navigate the web. It is imperative that all of our interns have a desire and willingness to learn about effective e-commerce marketing.

If you are ready to learn and have a positive attitude, please fill out our application and e-mail it to us. Visit our website at: <http://www.revenueperformance.com/intern.htm>
